THE 1958 CHOWANOKA

"TOWARD NEW HORIZONS"

FOREWORD

In the belief that this has been a truly momentous year in Chowan College's history, the 1952 Chowanoka Staff has selected, "Toward New Horizons," as the Yearbook theme.

The many and significant steps toward an ever-widening horizon that Chowan has taken this year, have inspired us to capture in the pages of this Yearbook, something of her future place of leadership in the field of Christian Higher Education.

Because of the initiation and success of the Enlargement-Development Effort, Chowan College will soon be in a construction program which will see the seven proposed buildings become realities. Sketches of these proposed buildings will appear as division pages throughout the Yearbook.

Chowan College now stands at the threshold of even greater service to the Northeastern North Carolina and Tidewater Virginia areas. Her steady advance "Toward New Horizons" will ever enable her to bring encouragement and assistance to the youth of these areas, as they move "Toward New Horizons" for themselves and for humanity.

Editor

THE 1958 CHOWANOKA IS DEDICATED TO . . .

Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker

Prexy, Barry, Mrs. and Skippy-dog Whitaker

It is the men behind every movement who give it purpose and momentum. One of the men who has given such leadership to the Chowan College Enlargement-Development Program is our President, Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker. It is with gratitude and appreciation that we dedicate to President Whitaker, the 1958 Chowanoka.

Meet

Miss Chowanoka

of 1958

This year's "Miss Chowanoka" was selected from portraits of the young ladies whose pictures appear on the following eight pages, by the popular head basketball coach of Wake Forest College, Horace "Bones" McKniney.

"Trying to officiate a contest like this is a real tough job," said 'Bones', "but I've tried to call it as I saw it."

CHOWAN HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL QUEEN for 1958

President Whitaker placing the crown on the head of Queen Annie Lou.

On the night Chowan's basketballers played Campbell, representatives from 20 North Carolina and Virginia High Schools were on hand to compete for the title, "Chowan High School Basketball Queen for 1958." The young ladies and their escorts were guests of honor at a banquet preceding the game. After their appearance before the judges and the crowd at the game, Annie Lou Billups of Enfield was awarded the coveted crown. Jewel Snipes of Ahoskie was first runner-up and Jane Lawrence, Mars Hill High, was second runner-up.

Mrs. John Gill, wife of Chowan's public relations director, pinning a corsage on runner-up Jewel Snipes while her escort Charlie Bolton looks on approvingly.

DELTA PI EPSILON

Sports

Last fall, Mr. Hunter Pope, a Chowan trustee from Enfield and an outstanding Wake Forest College netter some years ago, decided that the College's tennis courts needed a new face. So, Mr. Pope donated a sum of money for the purpose of providing the cement courts pictured above—another step forward in Chowan's progressive development program.

CHOWAN 0 — EAST CAROLINA J. V. 19

The Braves opened their season in Ahoskie against a much larger ECC Jayvee eleven and gave the Baby Pirates a rock-em, sock-em battle before bowing by a 19-0 count. However, the game was much closer than the score indicates. The scrappy young Indians fumbled a way numerous scoring opportunities and made the Pirates fight for every inch they gained.

ROUGH, READY, VETERAN LINEMEN

Kneeling, Center Pat Warren and Tackle Kerry Carawan; Standing, End Phil Collins and Tackle Gordon Peoples.

CHOWAN 13 — BULLIS PREP 7

The Braves home opener was played in a driving rain-storm. On the second play of the second quarter half-back J. C. Young dove over from the one-yard line for the first Indian tally. Lanny Roof capped a scoring drive in the third period by sprinting 6 yards around end into paydirt for the winning touchdown. The Braves vicious play up front was the difference in the two clubs. The hardcharging Indian line repeatedly stopped the high-powered Little Admiral backs whenever the goal line was in danger.

CHOWAN 7 — APPRENTICE SCHOOL 13

In their next outing, the Braves traveled to Newport News and dropped a close one to the rough and ready Apprentice School Shipbuilders. The Builders scored first but Lawrence Kearson put the Indians back in the game with a six-pointer which climaxed a 74-yard sustained drive. Hogan converted and the Braves went into the dressing room at the half on the long end of a 7-6 score. A costly Brave fumble on the first play following the second half kickoff gave the Shipbuilders an easy TD. The Indians threatened repeatedly in the last two periods but never could cross the last white stripe again.

CHOWAN 7 — WINGATE 14

Wingate, ranked fourth among the nation's Junior Colleges, had to come from behind in the second half to defeat an aroused band of Braves in a game played on Wingate's home gridiron. The Braves led 7-0 at the half after John Hogan had sneaked over from the one and added the extra point with a place-kick. In the last half the powerful Wingate eleven began to move and put 14 points on the scoreboard while holding the Braves scoreless. It was a tough one for the Indians to lose for they had several other excellent opportunities to score; but they came home with a moral victory over the nationally-ranked Wingate team.

RUGGED NEWCOMERS UP FRONT

Kneeling, l to r, Guard Gary Henman, Tackle Jim Woodruff, Tackle Tommy Daughtry; Standing, End Jerry Bean, End Salvador Thomasson, Guard Bob Cotten.

CHOWAN 7 — FORK UNION 34

In the annual Ruritan Bowl Game at Deep Creek, Va., the Blue Devils of Fork Union Military Academy ran roughshod over the Braves. It was just one of those nights when the Indians could do nothing right and the Cadets could do nothing wrong. The Fork Union backs—by far the best the Braves faced all season—piled up tremendous yardage and their human battering ram, fullback Lowell Vaught, was everybody's All American on that particular night. Clyde Morgan, the leader in an impotent Braves offense, scored the only Chowan tally on a 21-yard gallop through center late in the final period.

SHIFTY, SOPHOMORE BACKS

The Braves ended their season in a blaze of glory as they outscrapped the gridiron warriors of Columbian Prep, Washington, D. C. It was a bruising homecoming battle from the opening whistle and the game was highlighted by savage play on the part of two well-coached lines. The Cadets got the game's first tally, but J. C. Young made it 6-6 just three minutes later when he went over from the one-yard line. Late in the third period the Braves wrapped it up when Carawan recovered a Prep fumble and Lanny Roof pitched a perfect strike into the waiting arms of Captain Phil Collins in the end zone for the winning touch-down.

THE SCRAPPY BRAVE BACKS

Kneeling, l to r: Roof, Kearson, F. Morgan, Mitchell, Griffin, Duell, Foster, H. Smith, Young, and Parker. Standing: Hooks, Edwards, Hogan, R. Sawyer, Davis, C. Morgan, M. Smith, Steele, Rober-son, and Phillips.

Head Coach "Ike" Davis developed a potent offense from the fleet of backs pictured above. John Hogan, freshman quarterback from New Bern, was handling the team like a veteran when the season closed. Three fine and powerful fullbacks were a real joy to Coach Davis: Lawrence Kearson and Lanny Roof were consistent and dependable and Clyde Morgan was the squad's leading ground gainer for the season. Halfbacks J. C. Young, Jimmy Foster and several others were constant break-away threats. The passing of Jimmy Parker and the kicking of Bill Steele were other backfield highlights.

THE STALWART BRAVE LINEMEN

CHOWAN FRESHMEN 6 ELIZABETH CITY 13

The Baby Braves lost a close one to the Yellow Jackets who later won the state AA crown. Chowan scored first, but the Elizabeth City boys put together two sustained drives of 67 and 68 yards for the win. The freshmen played this game after only eight days of practice.

CHOWAN FRESHMEN 25 WASHINGTON HIGH 6

The freshmen Braves had only one other contest—a meeting with the strong Pam Pack at Washington. End Sally Thomasson scored two of Chowan's four touchdowns; Billy Mitchell and Lawrence Kearson got the others. Lanny Roof's 70-yard punt return was the game's highlight.

THE STARTING QUINTET—These five men led the Brave attack all season. They were a much tougher ball club than the won-loss record indicates, as their opponents across the state will testify. Left to right, Murphy Smith, Jerry Wrenn, Co-captain Phil Collins, Co-captain Dan Griffin and Vance Pittman.

THE SQUAW BASKETEERS

The Brave Baseballers have not played their first game and it is time to go to press with the Chowanoka. Therefore, no results can be listed for the schedule shown on this page. The way the boys have performed in practice thus far indicates that this year's nine will be one of Chowan's greatest baseball clubs. Returning lettermen are: Bill Steele, Jug Morgan, Hunk Smith, and Jimmy Parker.

ADVERTISEMENTS

The Western Auto Store in Murfreesboro was the first business firm in the Roanoke-Chowan area to pledge 100 per cent to the Chowan College Enlargement-Development Campaign.

Manager George Gibbs and his employees—Joe Dickerson, Mable Lois Joyner, and Walter Hill—are pictured above as they received an honor placard from College Relations Director John Gill.

Many of the business and industrial firms whose advertisements appear in the following pages also contributed 100 per cent to the Chowan College Development Program effort.
